PROGRAM: Block and Tackle Football Camp has enjoyed decades of success amongst its previous players both on and off the football field. This camp offers instruction for all ages and positions. Age, size and experience will be taken into consideration in order to insure each player will be put in a position to learn and be successful. The program stresses the fundamentals of football and the importance of teamwork and sportsmanship. We allow the campers to interact both on and off the field in order to develop social interaction and self-esteem.

STAFF: Block and Tackle Football Camp founders/directors are among the best coaches in Section I history. These coaches bring over 40 years of experience and education to the field.
A full-time athletic trainer will be on duty during all camp hours.

EQUIPMENT: Each camper is required to have full equipment for his practice & safety. Campers will be able to rent this equipment through the camp for a fee of $25 for the week.
